NEWT COURSEY SEEKS POST IN DISTRICT 3

Newt Coursey, farmer of Calvert City Route 1, today officially entered the race for magistrate in District 3. Mr. Coursey was a deputy sheriff for four years under Harry Miller and three years under Louis Lilly. His statement follows:

To the voters of Marshall County: This to announce that I am a candidate for magistrate in District 3 in the August primary.

I come as no stranger to the people of this county and District 3, since I have been a file-long resident of the county and have been a farmer all my life.

Because of these facts I feel assured that I am sufficiently interested in the welfare of my neighbors and the residents of District 3 to make them a good magistrate. I promise to do the best job I possibly can if you see fit to elect me.

Your vote and influence, and every consideration will be greatly appreciated.

100 EXPECTED AT CONVENTION

APPROXIMATELY 100 members of Marshall County's 15 4-H clubs are expected here tomorrow (April 30) for the third annual County 4-H Rally Day at Benton High School. The event will get underway at 1:30 p. m.

During the last three years the 4-H Club movement has made rapid headway in Marshall County, according to County Agent J. Homer Miller. Membership now falls just short of the 400 mark. Twenty-five members attended the first county-wide rally in 1947 and 50 turned out last year. With increased membership, increased interest and increased activity, Mr. Miller and his aides felt reasonably sure today that this year's turnout will pass the century mark.

WINNERS of the county contests, which include style, review, judging of canned fruits and vegetables, water management and tree demonstrations, will participate in the district finals May 26 in Paducah. They also will be eligible to take a trip to Lexington during 4-H Week June 7-11, regardless of how they fare in the district contest. Last year the county winners tied for first in timber estimating.

Presidents of the clubs to be represented here tomorrow are: Bobby Jean Freeman, Calvert City; Betty Sue Lamb, Brewers; fifth and sixth grades; Arwood Smith, Brewers seventh and eighth grades; Ralph Campbell, Sharpe; Junior Shenwell, Oak Level; Dwayne Jones, Fair Deal; Mary Rudolph, Aurora. Patsy Greenfield, Hardin; Elvis Inman, Maple Springs; Dennis Logan, Gilesville; Joe Francis Clayton, Briensburg; Anna Lou Brown, Unity; Jimmie Dale Kimes, Griggs; James Cathey, Church Grove; and Sandra Jo Watkins, Palma.

FOR THE FIRST time in history, a county school has emerged with not just one, but three (count 'em) valedictorians. Three Brewers girls, Betty Joan Yates, Margene Miller and Marilyn Chester, all wound up with an "A" average. To make things worse, they tallied identical scores on I. Q. tests--so the only thing to do was declare them all valedictorians.

CALVERT versus GRAND RIVERS, There

THE BENTON LIONS and the Calvert City Legionnaires Marshall County's only entries in the Twin-State Baseball League, the largest of the state's baseball directory, will launch their 1949 seasons Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

The Benton club, two-time winner of the Eastern Division, will be host to the Salem team, while the Calvert City charges of Manager Joe Ely Cope will journey to Grand Rivers for opening day.

JOE DARNELL, Benton manager, was unable to name his starting pitcher today but indicated that George Culp, first line receiver for the past three seasons, will be on duty behind the plate. Willie Jones and Sam Farmer are likely to see a lot of action on the mound this summer, Darnell said, while one or two other good pitchers may be procured.

The Benton lineup will include Joe Dan Driffin at first; Smith, Dunn, second; Chester, Ray Powell, short; Jack Jennings, third; and Solon Farmer, J. C. Jones and Country Thompson in the outer garden.

NOW IN USE

TWO CALL BOXES, or out going mail boxes, have been installed in Benton in conjunction with the city delivery program.

One of the boxes is located in front of Mose Mason's Grocery at 613 Main Street in North Benton and on the corner of the J. P. Stillely residence in West Benton.

COLLECTIONS are made at the North Benton box at 11:45 a. m. and 3:45 p. m., and at the West Benton box at 11:30 a. m. and 3:45 p. m., according to Assistant Postmaster Joe P. Ely. No collections will be made on Sundays or holidays and none will be made on Saturday afternoon.

HARMONY SINGING

Despite mild opposition to the move to publicize Big Singing and perpetuate it, leaders of the Old Southern Harmony movement will be on hand at 7 p. m. in the Benton Methodist Church to assist young folks from the county in their efforts to learn the old songs precious to their fathers, grandfathers and great grandfathers for more than a half century.

Brewers Community Honors Alton Ross

Alton Ross, retiring principal at Brewers High School and successor to Homer Lassiter as county school supervisor, was given a Parker "51" pen and pencil set at a pot luck supper sponsored at the school Tuesday night by the Parent-Teacher association.

Mr. Ross has been principal at Brewers for eight years. A PTA spokesman said the dinner and the gifts were "tokens of appreciation for the many things done for the school since he became principal."

Mrs. Ott Faughn, president of the Brewers PTA, presided at the supper. The Rev. Edgar Sires and Willie Mathis were principal speakers.

MAPLE SPRINGS HOMECOMING SET

THE FIRST of what may be a series of all-day Homecoming and Memorial Services at the Maple Springs Church has been set for Sunday, May 8, when hundreds of persons formerly of that community are expected to get together again--visiting and worshipping in their erstwhile homeland.

The Rev. Leslie Lee will preach at the morning service at 11 o'clock, after which a dinner will be spread. Bro. George Eddie Clark will speak at 2 p. m.

A SINGING also is scheduled in conjunction with the event--including the Maple Springs Quartet and other singers of the community.

Around The Square

JUST TOOK on a "new look" this week in the form of my first pair of "specs" I wonder if some people will be as concerned about my glasses as they have been about my "late" mustache, which died accidentally about three weeks ago from a slip of the razor. I know of some who would have enjoyed seeing the slip occur in the vicinity of the throat. It isn't very likely, though, as I use an electric shaver or safety razor—when I have time to shave, that is. And just to keep them from living under false hopes, I might add that the "slip" wasn't due to nervousness—but a rush to be on time for a basketball game.

BACK TO "SPECS" for a moment, Hazel Bray at Kay's Coffee Shop said it's a sign I'm getting old at a young age. Doc Warrall says I do enough readin' and writin' and typesettin' to warrant them. Partner Bill (Nelson) is now bedecked in a similar fashion. So we're both wide open for a crack that we "need the glasses to be able to see the woods for the trees."

JUANITA (WEBSTER) SMITH of Gilbertsville was telling Dr. Sam Henson that her three-year-old son, Gary, won't eat the proper food all the time. Hoping to use a little child psychology, the affable Doc advised:

"If you eat what your mother tells you, sonny, you can grow up to be a big, strong man—and maybe become a great baseball, football or basketball player."

Rather disinterested, Gary mused for a moment, then retorted: "But I'm going to be a Baptist preacher." (Both of his parents are members of the Church of Christ).

IT WOULD BE NICE if Benton and Marshall County could get up a souvenir with a genuine local motif like Foy Jewelry Store is having designed for Paducah—an ash tray bearing a four-inch bust of Irvin S. Cobb mounted on a bronze book. A well in the book collects the ashes. Of course we'd have to figure out something else—for Cobb was strictly Paducah. Maybe a Tater Day, Big Singing or Kentucky Lake motif would be good. Just an idea. Probably the souvenir and curio firms springing up around the Lake would have some peppery, original ideas on the subject.

CORRECTION: Last week we listed the Tribune's circulation as 2,400. Van Wyatt, who operates the press every Wednesday and Thursday, and always asks "how many new ones" on Wednesday—so he'll know how many to print—came around after reading the column and said, "I've been running over 2,500 for the past two weeks." If you don't believe us, ask him.

PARTNER BILL and I were talking the other day about how fortunate we are to have two fellows as reliable and as honest as Van and Fay Melton working with us. They aren't the kind to shirk a job—and equally as important, they aren't "bought off" easily. How do we know? At least one of them has been put to the test several times recently.

THE CHIT-CHAT in the county school superintendent's office is still about the new fluorescent light—the first one in any office in the court house.

Cherry Grove:

Trees Bloom in A Cherry Way

By Effie Bowden

Dal Riley in the Grove has a back yard full of cherry trees blooming now. Let's keep a few trees blooming around the Old Grove for "Auld Lang Syne," children!

Passing Through the Grove

Grove folk sorry to hear of the death of Mrs. David Darnell and Daniel McGregor, cousin of this scribe. And we sympathize with the relatives and friends. Get well wishes from all the Grove folk to Benton's postmaster—C. B. Cox, who has just returned from a Memphis hospital where he underwent an operation.

Holland Rose is building a new home and plans to move back to the Grove.

Easter Sunday is now in the past. The Grove folk spent their day in worshipping God in some church where they were wont to go.

The Pleasant Grove new Methodist Church was dedicated to the Lord on this Easter Sunday. The church building is a new brick structure and the ones who gather there to worship and have spent their time and money to build this new, modern house are our friends and neighbors.

Some of them were students in the old Cherry Grove school house that once sat on a hillside surrounded by cherry trees.

This Bowden family, the Hamiltons of the Grove, Mrs. Luke Lyles and Trudie Smith attended an all-day Easter service in Mayfield. The new Easter bonnets and the "ribbons and bows" were on display—red roses, white carnations and orchids and lilies on lovely new Easter frocks. Kinda made this scribe wish for the old days—not just the old school house on the hill—but youth and beauty again!

While Easter is over we turn our mind to the weekly sheet that goes into so many homes—these homes looking for "their" paper. Methinks we have a cloud of witnesses—witnessing the point that we have an up-to-the-minute newspaper.

And now I see a new cloud arising in the northwest. New reporters from Symsonia and Oak Level are coming soon. Welcome children—come in and sit with us, visit our shop, see the work that goes into a weekly paper. The Easter edition was highly flavored, I thought—with news and features.

I particularly liked the story about the work being done to correct the destruction of our fertile land in the river bottoms. We talk with those who own such land and who now have bushels and bushels of corn wasted from last year's labor. Let's help our neighbors.

STRICTLY BUSINESS

by McFadden

"Oh, you found Mr. Krovny!"

Cooperation Paid Off

JUST AS AN example of what cooperation can produce, we'd like to cite the citizens of Clinton and Hickman County. For many years residents of that community saw the need for a hospital—but the tendency there, as elsewhere, was to recognize the need but do nothing about it.

Finally, an enterprising group of citizens, spurred on by an initial gift of some $20,000, got their heads together and mapped out a campaign to raise an additional amount—an amount sufficient to build a $200,000 institution.

THE HICKMAN COUNTY GAZETTE this month published a drawing of the proposed hospital—and it's a beauty. Certainly a credit to the people of Hickman County and Clinton. The real working part of the campaign, according to reports, took about two years.

If Clinton can do it—Benton and Marshall County should be able to do it, too. But we can't keep waiting and hoping—it takes a little work...a lot of work, in fact.

One businessman said the other day the best way to go about such things is not to ask for donations—but to sell shares in the institution. It would be one investment that would pay itself out in a few years, he continued, since the need for hospitalization is great.

WE COMMENT our neighbors of the Jackson Purchase—the Hickman County folks, who worked together to get something that will help them all. And we hope to see the day when Marshall County can do the same.

Fresh Grapes--Sour Variety

SOME WHO HAVE done little or nothing to publicize Big Singing have been plucking a few sour grapes lately because others—including H. E. Lovett, Duke Nichols, the Rev. T. G. Waller, Shelby McCallum, the Tribune-Democrat and numerous others—have been taking the lead in boosting Marshall County's biggest homecoming.

The antiquated idea is that it's bad to publicize the day. (By the same token, one could opine that it's bad to advertise.) The inference is that it would be somewhat un-holy to broadcast the singing—and that only folks who knew the early leaders of the Big Singing movement know the real significance of Big Singing.

WE DOUBT IT, but if that be true, in a few years—the next 20 or so—nobody would be left to give a hoot about Big Singing—because all the folks who knew the founders will have passed along.

And many of those interested in preserving Big Singing—publicizing it and letting its glory spread beyond the confines of Marshall County—are interested in doing it because their fathers were among the founders.

SCOTT LEMON of Mayfield, whose father founded Big Singing, is happy to see it kept alive. The same Col. J. R. Lemon also edited the Tribune—and it seems only natural that the Tribune should be interested in seeing that the big homecoming event founded by its second publisher should be kept alive.

Naturally, there are those who wouldn't shed a tear if Big Singing and the Tribune both folded. The surest way to let Big Singing dwindle into nothing is to DO NOTHING about keeping it alive. We may make mistakes in promoting it—but at least folks will know we're in there pitching—in the interest of Marshall County.

(A Message to Woodmen)

Just as you check your motor and keep it in tune for safe, pleasant driving, so your life insurance protection should be checked periodically and kept in tune with changing conditions.

Now, during the Sovereign Officers Appreciation Campaign, is a good time to check your Woodmen certificates to determine whether your protection is adequate for your present and future needs.

Ask your local Woodmen representative to help you analyze your present protection. If you need more, his advice is valuable in selecting the type of Woodmen certificate that best meets your needs.

COUNTY LOSES TOP EDUCATORS DUE TO LOW SALARIES, SAYS ROSE

Teachers, School Leaders Praise Homer Lassiter at Dinner Meet

SCHOOL OFFICIALS and parents of children in the Marshall County school system are high in their praise of Homer Lassiter, retiring supervisor, who is soon to leave to accept a position with the North Carolina Department of Education in Raleigh.

"He is the only man I've ever known whom I have never heard criticized," County Superintendent Holland Rose said recently at a dinner meeting in Mr. Lassiter's honor sponsored by the teachers of the county at Sharpe.

THE COUNTY is losing top ranking educators—like all other counties in Kentucky, because the state does not pay the salaries offered in other states, Rose said.

Speaking at the same PTA banquet, which was held in the Sharpe School April 14, Boone Hill, chairman of the County Board of Education, declared: "We regretted to accept Mr. Lassiter's resignation but would not stand in the way of his advancement."

D. R. O'Dell, Sharpe principal, was toastmaster. Features

Mrs. Donald Sheppard, formerly of Benton, entertained with a dinner party April 15 in her home at 2085 Blaine, Detroit, Mich., in honor of Miss Lillian Olenek, who recently announced her engagement.

Guests were Wayne University classmates in the Medical Technology Department—Marjorie Giebel, Barbara Rays, Martha Lawton, Lucille Ripley, Miss Olenek and Mrs. Sheppard.

Easter decorations were used—silver candle holders with pink candles, with a center decoration consisting of a silver plate filled with jelly beans. The honoree was presented a corsage of pink ponia roses.

TREES TOO... are a CROP

ON VAST areas, best suited to the production of timber, trees are being planted, protected, grown, and harvested like any other crop.

Long past is the period when forests were cut to provide fields for agriculture. This is no longer necessary and the land now classified as forestland can be kept intact for the purpose of growing more trees.

We are in an era of managed forestry, and the forest industries, looking ahead, plan for the continuous production of tree crops.

We have learned that trees are a crop and, as such, can keep on producing useful harvests for the future.

IT'S THE "EXTRA" IN THE OIL THAT GIVES YOU EXTRA PROTECTION

Ordinary motor oils alone aren't tough enough to meet the challenge of modern engines and present-day driving conditions. It takes an "extra" to provide the complete lubrication protection needed.

THAT'S WHY D-X MOTOR OIL CONTAINS

EXTRINOL

Here is What EXTRINOL Does

Extrinol is the name of the complex chemicals which now are added to D-X Motor Oil. Extrinol makes D-X—long famous as a top quality, high heat-resisting, paraffin-base motor oil—safer, tougher, longer lasting, more economical to use. Extrinol helps clean your motor and helps keep it clean, so it can deliver more power. Extrinol protects your bearings against rusting, pitting and wear. It fights oil-eating sludge. D-X Motor Oil, now with Extrinol, gives you better lubrication and extra protection—at no extra cost!

CHANGE TO D-X NOW

Get the extra protection of EXTRINOL for the hot weather driving that's ahead. Be sure your motor gets all the protection it needs—all of the time. Use D-X with Extrinol, the guaranteed motor oil with the "extra."

Peggy Croons as Others Plant the Garden

By Martha (Peggy) Mathis

As the dogwood trees bear their blossoms, we turn to the pages of the old Tribune-Democrat to see what's cooking. And it's mostly farming. For those who live out in the country, of course.

While I sit in an easy rock-in' chair drinking cherry cokes and reading, I think that maybe have spring fever--the reason I don't love to work. (But who loves to work if they don't hafta?)

Mother, grandfather and grandmother planted a garden Friday while my pal, Jean, and I were in the house croonin' a tune. Well, we had to serenade them while they worked, didn't we? So long for now.

--Peggy.

Poison Ivy Pops Up

From out of nowhere, poison ivy has popped up in this district. Mrs. Henry Jones had it bad--with her arm bandaged up. Saw her trying to hoe her onions that way the other day.

Get well wishes to Mrs. Opa Clark who recently underwent an operation.

Easter Bunny--Too Late

Jean Tubbs and I were sitting on the porch down at Tom my's when his wife went in the house and came back with a tiny creature in her hands -- a tiny rabbit.

"It's Abner's play toy," she said. A cute little thing, although Jean didn't pay too much attention...more interested in drinking a Pepsi Cola and reading a movie book on Hero

Roy Rogers.

Speaking about Easter, I enjoyed it swell with a gang of girls and boys over at Castleberry's--with an egg hunt, pictures and a swell dinner. (I only had three dinners at different places -- and gorged a cake (Adell baked.)

Sweet Sixteen

Mrs. Lawrence Woods told me the other day she heard several at Briensburg saying they enjoy the Clark news. Thanks--but it's not so good to me. I never know what I am going to write--just sit down with a pen and paper and write what I hear, and whatever pops into my mind.

Several have asked me how old I am. I'll be 16 in July (on the 6th).

Up to Date Gossip

I often sit and wonder why a lot of people don't like for girls to wear makeup. But who is suppose to wear cosmetics men? So it goes. A man meets a young lookin' girl, marries, and then when she takes the face cream to remove her makeup, he turns around to find the young lookin' girl about 35 years old--or older lookin' that his mom. But "that's women for you," the men say.

The old saying is that it's "fair for one if it is fair for the other." Men are always writing songs about women -- and talking about the latest styles -- short hair and long dresses -- and girls in men's clothing.

But is a beauty shop with those permanent waves for women or men? It's all O. K. for me if it is the rest. Who knows? I certainly don't--but it's the latest gossip. And it just goes to show--don't tell it to me if you don't want it in the Tribune.

Here And There

Anna Jo and Sammy spent Friday afternoon with their grandmother, Mrs. Mithie Tubbs.

Charles Siris visited the Jamboree last Thursday.

Claude Wyone Nimmo has been in bed recently from heart trouble.

Had a friendly chat with a woman while going down to my aunt's a few weeks back--and I believe someone said her name was a Mrs. McWaters.

Mrs. Edgar English has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Hawley Henson, during week ends recently.

I saw baby Valera yesterday playing in the dirt -- but she wouldn't say anything except: "Daddy's on the high ladder painting the house."

Like's Mary's History

I enjoyed Mary Green's life history last week. It was interesting even though I don't know her.

Jean and I stopped by to see Mr. and Mrs. Rex Henson and son, Weldon, planting a garden. But I couldn't get Jean home without eating a bit of Mrs. Lucy's cooking. They are some of the best neighbors anyone could have.

We hillbillies still believe in music. A hillbilly musical was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Finis Holley recently featuring the Turner Brothers Band and several others. Sorry I wasn't there, Sarah, but thanks for the invitation anyway.

SCHOOL NEWS

The Band May Go Professional!

By Joe Green
Hello folks: here I am again trying to get some of the news from "up on the hill," off my chest.
Since this is the first effort since Easter, I'll ask how the holiday treated you. I had a wonderful time—working (?)
Ho, hum! The old KEA vacation's over and I'm still sleepy. A lot (I believe that's the word I would use) of people were over at the lake last bright, shining week end, trying their fishing luck—and from some of the stories I hear, that lake must be full of whales.

The seniors have finally rolled around and got a play started. It's to be given in about two or three weeks. The title: "Grandpa's Twin Sister." It's a three-act comedy with ten characters—five boys and five girls. Full announcement will be made later.

I'm sure glad that Mr. Hodges and Pat Morgan are better now—and I hope there are no scars left.
Our little band might make a little money by playing for a few shows at some of the communities around in the near future.

I only have about three or four more times to write school news letters this year—so I had better save up some until next time. So for now I'll say "Bye-bye, buy an annual."

FOR SALE: 1 used 2-piece living room suite, red mohair cover. Good condition. $55.00. FLEMING FURNITURE CO. Etc.

Christine Wallace, John R. Baker Marry April 18

Miss Christine Wallace of Cottage Hills, Ill., became the bride of John Raymond Baker, son of J. P. Baker of Benton, Monday, April 18 at a double ring ceremony performed before a mantle decorated with tulips in the home of the Rev. T. L. Campbell, pastor of the Briensburg Missionary Baptist Church.

The only attendants were a brother and sister-in-law of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Javie Baker of Benton.

The bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories. Mrs. Baker wore a grey suit with black accessories.

Mr. Baker, who now lives in Cottage Hills, served four years in the recent war, 20 months of which were overseas. The couple returned to Cottage Hills Wednesday. After a brief visit with Mr. Baker's relatives they will make their home there.

The bride is employed at the Owens Ill. Glass Company. Miss Norma Louise Baker went back with them to spend some time with her grandfather, W. A. Downing, and other relatives at Alton, Ill.

ARTHUR DARNALL OUT FOR SHERIFF

Arthur B. Darnall, World War I veteran and jailer of Marshall County, this week authorized the Tribune to publish the following announcement of his candidacy for the post of sheriff in the August primary:

To the voters of Marshall County: I take this method of announcing my candidacy for the office of Sheriff.

First I want to express my appreciation for the favors you have shown me in the past by electing me county jailer. In the past seven years that I have served as jailer of Marshall County I have tried to make you a good officer. During that time I have made a public record which is an open book for your inspection. You owe it to yourself to examine that record and see whether or not it is good or bad. It is on that record that I am asking for a higher and better office. I believe that I understand the duties of the sheriff and am able to perform the same. If you elect me your sheriff I will do everything in my power to make you a good officer.

I shall be ready at all times to do my duty. It is my intention to make an active campaign and will try to see each and every voter and present my claim in person. I want you to investigate my record, consider my claim and if you find it worthy and you think I will make you a good and efficient sheriff, then I honestly and sincerely solicit your vote and influence in the Democratic Primary August 6, 1949.

(Pol. Advt.) Arthur B. Darnall.

No Iron Curtain
"We read a lot these days about an Iron Curtain maintained by a certain nation. In contrast, Woodcraft's motives are crystal clear, completely unselfish... there is no Iron Curtain here."
"All may see the relief in a widow's eyes... when the Society's check is handed to her. All may observe how fraternity is made practical when a Camp harvests an ill member's crop... presents a flag to a school... a medal to a student of history. Nor is there any secret when they establish a blood bank, present a wheel chair, or unveil an historical marker." — From an editorial by President Farrar Newberry in Woodmen of the World Magazine.
These are but some of the "plus" benefits Woodmen enjoy along with safe, sound, legal reserve life insurance protection. Ask the local Woodmen representative how you can build security for yourself and your loved ones and enjoy Woodcraft's fraternal, social and civic activities.
